Manufacturers PAC of Texas (MPACT) Endorses John Frullo for Texas House of Representatives

AUSTIN – The Texas Association of Manufacturers (TAM) political action committee, the Manufacturers PAC of Texas (MPACT), today announced its endorsement of John Frullo, Republican candidate for the Texas House of Representatives (HD-84), for his election in 2010.

“In this global economy, it is extremely important for Texans to elect leaders who understand the positive impact of maintaining and expanding the state’s manufacturing industry. Mr. Frullo not only gets it, he is a champion of our industry” said Luke Bellsnyder, Executive Director of TAM.

“Mr. Frullo received our endorsement due to his tireless efforts to advocate for a strong manufacturing climate in Texas. We believe Mr. Frullo will work hard for the industry and help create an environment where we can continue to provide the highest average salaries in the private sector” added Bellsnyder.

Manufacturing is the engine that drives prosperity in Texas and across the United States. It is central to our economic security – creating high quality jobs and benefits, and providing significant tax revenue for schools and other government services.
